CAN YOU IDENTIFY THIS CONDITION?
A 28-year-old woman had many dark blue nodules on her trunk and extremities. They were slightly tender. She had no history of gastrointestinal bleeding. Her father and brother had similar lesions.

The most likely diagnosis is:
1. Hemangiomas
2. Blue rubber-bleb nevi syndrome
3. Multiple glomangiomas
4. Cherry angiomas

Answer on page 1580

Dr Adams is a Clinical Lecturer in Dermatology at the University of Calgary.