

Can you identify this condition?

Dominik W. Podbielski Jason Noble MD

A 73-year-old man presents to his family doctor with a 1-week history of metamorphopsia and blurry vision in the right eye. A fundus photograph reveals the above image.

The most likely diagnosis is

1. Retinal detachment
2. Wet age-related macular degeneration
3. Central retinal vein occlusion
4. Diabetic retinopathy

Answer on page 1396