From the publisher. Twelve contributors highlight various aspects of the school's development and the unique opportunities it offers. The first new medical school in Canada in more than 30 years, the Northern Ontario School of Medicine provides a blueprint for those interested in an innovative approach to medical education. This collection provides a fascinating and detailed account of the challenges and rewards faced by those who insisted on creating a patient-centred, community-based, and culturally sensitive learning environment for the physicians of tomorrow.

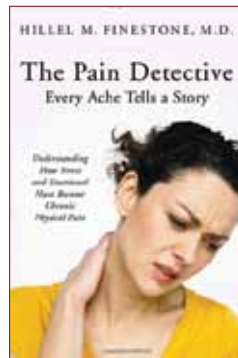

The pain detective

Every ache tells a story

AUTHOR Hillel M. Finestone
PUBLISHER Praeger Publishers, 130 Cremona Dr, Santa Barbara, CA 93117, USA
TELEPHONE 805 968-1911
WEBSITE www.praeger.com
PUBLISHED 2009/227 pp/$44.95

From the publisher. Taking the reader into several diagnostic sessions to illustrate what he sees as a "detective" process to find the source of pain, Finestone explains how psychological and social issues can influence health and healing, for better or worse. Lower back and neck pain, fibromyalgia, and even work-related pains are delved into. In addition to providing vignettes that illustrate the ideas discussed and show dramatic instances of how healing the mind can also heal the body, Finestone uses unique and useful diagrams that explain how the mind and body are physiologically connected and reactive to each other.
