Appendix 1. Expertise, roles and responsibilities, and conflicts of interest for the guideline development team members and support staff

Name	Expertise	Guideline Role and	Conflict(s) of Interest
	•	Section Responsibilities	· /
Guideline development team members
Barbara Farrell	Pharmacist (Geriatric Day Hospital, lead on the Deprescribing guidelines in the elderly project)	 Overall lead Introduction Recommendations Clinical considerations Gaps in knowledge 	Received research funding for the purposes of developing this guideline; received financial payments from Institute for Healthcare Improvement and Commonwealth Fund for deprescribing guidelines summary and from Ontario Long-Term Care Physicians Association, Ontario Pharmacists Association and Canadian Society of Hospital Pharmacists for speaking engagements
Kevin Pottie	Family Physician, WHO GRADE working group member	 GRADE methods lead Recommendations	None declared
Carlos Rojas- Fernandez	Pharmacist (geriatrics, primary and long-term care settings)	Review of harmsClinical considerationsOther guidelines	None declared
Kate Walsh	Pharmacist (completed residency project on PPI deprescribing)	Patient values and preferencesResource implications	None declared
Paul Moayyedi	Gastroenterologist – Cochrane GI group member	GRADE review	Chair partially funded by Astra Zeneca; received financial payments from same for speaking engagements.
Support persons
Wade Thompson	Pharmacist (Long- term care)	Summary of findings	None declared

		 GRADE review Patient values and preferences Clinical considerations
Taline Boghossian	Pharmacy resident – to conduct systematic review	Summary of findingsGaps in knowledge	None declared
Farah Joy Rashid	Pharmacy resident – to conduct systematic review	Summary of findingsGaps in knowledge	None declared
Vivian Welch	Clinical epidemiology methodologist	Summary of findingsGRADE reviewGaps in knowledge	None declared
Lisa Pizzola		Guideline coordinator	None declared